Packard Bell Liberty Tab Even more freedom at your fingertips

- Stylish Pearl White or Burgundy Red
- Enhanced experience with Android 3.2
- All-inclusive functionalities

Packard Bell today announced a new version of its stylish 10.1" PB Liberty Tab tablet equipped with Android 3.2.

Life and style are in the palm of your hands. On one side, a vibrant 10.1" HD display that brings photos, movies and games to life, on the other, a stylish Burgundy red cover or a Pearl White cover that will turn heads.

Anything is possible with the new PB Liberty Tab and even more. With the new embedded Android 3.2 operating system, starting September 30th or October 8th¹, it is designed for living your digital life to the fullest with maximum fun: Flash 10.3 support, expanded media codecs (WMV, WMA & Xvid), HDMI® output in Full HD (1080p). And you can also resize your widgets. Want to download a movie from your PC directly on your PB Liberty Tab's SD card? Now you can.

To top it off, the upgrade from Android 3.0 to Android 3.2 is automatic and smooth, any PB Liberty Tab equipped with Android 3.0 has received onscreen a notification for upgrading; we couldn't make it more simple, could we?

Packard Bell Liberty Tab is all-inclusive, no need for adaptors to connect a USB device or a HDMI™ big screen: you can express yourself at the very best.

With the Packard Bell Liberty Tab you will enter into a new dimension of usability and enjoyment with no limit.

The new Packard Bell Liberty Tab is available in European outlets, starting at the street selling price of 399€.

About Packard Bell

Packard Bell pioneered the use of the PC in the home, taking an office tool and turning it into a friendly, indispensable feature of today's modern home. Stylish products with cool features, accessible to everyone, are the hallmarks of the brand - a unique combination that no other brand in the European market offers today. In 2008, Taiwan-based Acer Inc. acquired Packard Bell. In 2009, the Acer Group fully benefited from its multi-brand strategy, establishing itself as the second-largest PC company in the world and as the number two worldwide notebook vendor. Within the Acer Group, Packard Bell strives to design environmentally friendly products and establish a green supply chain through collaboration with suppliers.
